Honorable Walt W. Rostow
The Counselor
Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rostow:

We are more than grateful for your very fine presentation at our initial course in "Counter-Insurgency Program Planning." In view of the obvious interest it stimulated, I am sorry that our time did not permit a more extended discussion of the many problems the students wished to raise for your comment.

In this last respect I am sure you have derived a great deal of personal satisfaction from the amount of interest you have aroused in counter-insurgency operations, and I appreciate in particular the stress you placed on early preventive measures.

I trust we shall be able to call on you again to set the stage for subsequent classes.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) Marshall S. Carter
